PERSONAL GRATIFICATION VERSUS BUSINESS PROFIT

There is a nasty little item in the current tax bill now before the House Ways and Means Committee which, unless stricken out by prompt and militant action on the part of businessmen, farmers and individuals can well spell the end to countless thousands of flourishing farms that are now backed by the individual enterprise and initiative of their owners. This clause, minus the legal verbiage that seems so essential to all matters that should be particularly simple and end up sounding like a battle of words with all commas barred, disallows business deductions where expenses exceed the income for a five year period.

By this bill the Treasury is seeking to plug loopholes and has jumped on the tax deduction from business losses with both feet in a clause that aims directly at the farming class more interested in improving the quality of their livestock and their soil than in wringing the last nickel from the land. In essence this means if an individual has a loss for three years of a 5 year period of $20,000, he cannot deduct this loss from his income tax. This is a serious matter for the consideration not necessarily of millionaires who will still get along alright, but of the thousands upon thousands of men and women who now depend for their livelihood on the purebred livestock farms these enterprising men run as sidelines to their regular employment.

Every small town in the country has a wealthy class. We have our Democratic system to make this possible. The millionaires silly enough to wish to make all this money are infinitesimal as a group, but the purchasing power of their dollar looms large through the land and looks very good to hundreds of thousands who sell things to these rare birds. In these small towns the wealthy man buys land, acquires purebred stock, feeds it quality hay and grain. If it is a horse he races it, if livestock shows it or sells it for its ability to improve the breed. His enterprise is legitimate. He spends his profit that way and if it costs him more than he makes, he has legitimately charged it off of the tax he would pay the government. A loss should always be deductible from income unless taxes are to be purely confiscatory and when they become such our democratic system must have been long gone with the wind.

What happens now under the new clause. The business man or high income individual, already faced with taxes up to 75% of his income finds that he can no longer charge off his losses on his farm after three years against his income. He must then stand the loss with his already greatly shrunken income. Will he do it? The answer is simply, he cannot. Income taxes are now so high that they do not leave anyone spare capital to invest in such a laudatory pastime as improving the land, furthering the breed of livestock or running anyone of a hundred different worthwhile programs that employ men in the country and result in sales to business interests large and small the country over unless they can be charged off against profits.

The raising and breeding of purebred livestock is not a game that everyone can indulge who does not have capital. Farmers can ill afford to invest large sums in proven stock but they can and do constantly buy at lower prices the produce from this stock and thus improve their own stock. They are in the market to sell the breeder of fine livestock all of his needs to run his establishment. In return for this, the wealthy breeder operates his farm at a loss but enjoys the personal gratification he receives from doing a job well and incidentally doing a lot of good with his land. According to the wording of the pending legislation, the lawmakers object to the personal gratification angle. So long as anyone is having a dull enough time to call his interest one only for profit, he is in the clear. As soon as it becomes in the least sense enjoyable, bang comes the clause that says no more tax deduction.

Can anything be more penny wise and pound foolish? If the government seeks to drive all wealthy men out of the country where they can do some good and into Park Avenue or a steam yacht where they quietly help only themselves, they could not have devised a better scheme. While there is still time, why not shout loud enough to wake up Congressmen and Senators to the realization that all country people live for the joy of living and the personal gratification of jobs well done. They do not object to the man who operates his business for his own personal gratification, in fact, they appreciate the man with the common sense to buy good stock even if he loses money doing it. Since when has this government operated on the basis that anytime a man pays more than he can afford for his pleasures he should be taxed out of business. If that were the policy of the present government they should have been run out of the country twenty years ago for general insolvency.

Letters To The Editor

Attention All Horsemen

Dear Editor:

This is to advise that The House of Representatives Ways and Means Committee has adopted the following Tentative decision:

"To disallow business deductions to the extent that they exceed gross income from an enterprise unless the taxpayer can establish by a clear preponderance of the evidence that the business was conducted primarily for profit and not for his personal gratification where the taxpayer has carried on the business for 5-years with an aggregate net loss for the 5-year period of more than $20,000, if the expenses attributable to such business exceeded the gross income therefrom in 3 or more of the 5 years, for each of these 5 years and for the current year."

This revision of the Tax law was proposed by the Treasury Department in a closed session of the Committee.

If this revision is enacted into law it will virtually put a stop to the racing and breeding of horses. Not only will the horse industry be seriously effected but all purebred livestock farms are in a precarious position. Real estate values will be lowered and all industry connected in anyway with these will suffer.

You should Contact At Once your Congressmen and Senators and urge them to exert every effort to prevent this proposal from becoming law.

Call this matter to the attention of your friends and neighbors and ask them to do likewise. Friends in other states should be advised of the seriousness of this situation and their help solicited. All farm organizations should be advised to object to the passage of this measure.

Your letters and telegrams should be addressed to your legislators care of the House or Senate (as the case may be), Office Building, Washington, D. C.

Your cooperation is of vital importance. Send these wires and letters at once.

Radnor Hunt Races

Jester's Moon Adds Radnor Hunt Cup To Impressive Record At the Hunt Meets; *Tudorian Takes Novice Timber Event

Nancy G. Lee

Radnor Hunt's 25th annual race meeting at Malvern, Pa. on May 12 drew a most peculiar recipe for weather but neither the cold nor wind kept the afternoon's card from being an outstanding one. The Radnor Hunt Cup promised to be a bang up event even though Mrs. W. J. Clothier's Pine Pep had been scratched and the spectators wouldn't get to see a 3rd meeting between the two-time Maryland Hunt Cup winner and this year's winner, Mrs. John Strawbridge, Jr.'s Jester's Moon.

Tourist Dream and Irish Tip also remained in the stable when the 3 1-2 mile timber event over 26 jumps went postward. James F. McHugh's Second Mate, which had finished 2nd over timber at White-marsh the previous Saturday, really was winging when he left Starter H. A. Plumb's elastic tape. This was the horse on which Jockey C. V. B. Cushman won his first race over timber at a sanctioned meeting and the same rider was in the irons at Radnor. The rails were intact after the 1st jump and as the field galloped behind the judges' stand, Second Mate was opening up quite a lead. After the ditch the 5th jump is along the road and the order was still Second Mate leading by about 10 lengths, Mr. E. Weymouth on S. R. Fry's Vaden King and Jockey D.

M. Smithwick on Miss Laura M. Franklin's Roxspur.

Going out of sight behind the hill after the 7th, Roxspur had moved into 2nd position ahead of Vaden King but Second Mate was turning in one of his best performances, running easily and jumping well and none were near him. Back into sight, downhill and over the 10th for one complete turn of the course, Second Mate really stood back, jumped and gained more lengths. The field was strung out but there was still a long way to go and a great many jumps. The ditch, which is the 4th and 14th, found Jockey W. Dixon and Jester's Moon now in 3rd spot behind Second Mate and Roxspur as Vaden King dropped back to 4th. Vaden King's late stablemate, Identiroon, had won this cup in 1948 and 1950, giving Owner Fry two legs on the cup which was first run for in 1947.

Another long swing around the course and behind the hill, Second Mate was still winging. When the horses appeared at the gap after the 19th and stared downhill, Jockey Dixon began to move along on Jester's Moon. Second Mate was tin canning downhill but Dame Fortune failed to smile on him over this jump which he had negotiated so beautifully the first trip around. He really put in a bad one but Cushman remained intact to keep the lead away from Roxspur and Jester's Moon.

After the 21st, the horses take the short course and the 22nd brought about some changes. It was still Second Mate but Jester's Moon jumped on even terms with the good going Roxspur while Vaden King really hit and for a moment it appeared as though Mr. Weymouth was headed toward the ground. He recovered and trailed the field as Second Mate, Jester's Moon and Roxspur took the 23rd jump well bunched together. Behind the hill again and the 24th—back into sight and Jester's Moon was holding a slight lead over Roxspur with Second Mate now 3rd. Roxspur and Jester's Moon came into the 25th head and head and the pace was terrific. Jester's Moon was over safely but Roxspur landed on three legs as Jockey Smithwick did a grand job to stay with him, only to lose out and fall. Roxspur had broken down badly.

All during the race Jockey E. H. Bennett had kept the Virginia Gold Cup winner, Mister Mars well off the pace but he now began to move along on him. The gelding had won the Radnor Hunt Cup in 1948 when he was owned by Miss Betty Bosley. Jester's Moon was increasing his lead over the 26th and last jump and there just wasn't any catching him. Second Mate held onto his

SHOW CIRCUITS

Bailey's Cross Roads

Even though the weatherman was most unco-operative, the Bailey's Cross Roads (Va.) Horse Show went on as scheduled, April 22. The good looking Middleburg entry of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burke's Psychic Sally, carried home the conformation hunter laurels, while Martin Vogel's Good Ship won reserve berth in that division.

The two most sought after trophies of the day, The Governor's Cup and the W. C. Viar Perpetual Memorial trophy, were easily snatched from the many competitors by a 15-year-old Manassas, Va. boy Gene Compton. Gene, who has only been riding his mount, A. S. Dailey's Tiny, for about a year, rode the little horse over a 6'-0" jump to win the first leg on the Viar Cup. He came back several classes in the knock-down-and-out event to snare The Governor's Cup. Despite his two victories, Tiny did not win the jumper tri-color as neither class counted for points.

However, North End Stables' Altitude won the jumper championship with a score of 7 points. A tie between Tom Jones' Half Moon and Pinke Wheatley's Old Gold, called for a jump off for reserve. With Pinke in the irons, Old Gold accounted for the reserve award.

Points were so scattered throughout the day that another tie resulted in the working hunter division between Peyton Ballenger's Anoka Luck and F. E. Westenberg's Night Wings. Both horses had 5 points but Night Wings left the show grounds before announcement and forfeited his chance.

Although there was a great deal of outside competition, the junior show held Saturday was quite successful. Miss Laura Lee Shreve put in a full day's riding and it paid off when her Popsicle won the large pony championship. Her Chico tied with Toni Brewer's Stinker for the small pony tri-color and after hacking it off, the nod went to Stinker. Large pony reserve was Randy Gardner's Troubadour.

Brentwood

Bright Hour Farm, the location of the Brentwood (Tenn.) Horse Show held April 28, is the home of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Houghland, and is named for Mr. Houghland's first steeplechaser, Bright Hour. A few years ago when the Robertson Academy P. T. A. was considering a place for their show, Mr. Houghland invited them to hold it regularly at his farm and added that he had plenty of standing timber to build a ring, but no labor. The Men's Club of Robertson Academy immediately made a lark of cutting trees for poles and building the rustic ring surrounded by boxes, with judges' stand in the center.

It is essentially a neighborhood horse show and the variety of classes gave everyone an opportunity to show, even a year-old young miss who won a ribbon in the costume event.

The winning entry in the family class was that of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Sharp and their 5 children. This is a hunting family and all wore hunting attire and were well mounted on beautifully turned out hunters and ponies.

Coatesville

The 3rd annual Coatesville (Pa.) Lions Club Horse Show was held at Ingleside Farms, the J. W. Bausman estate in Thorndale on April 28. A fine spring day brought out over 100 horses to try the outside course and the new permanent ring that has recently been erected on the farm.

Honors for the day were very well divided with H. A. W. Myrin's handsome bay Kimberline being pinned champion hunter. Jiggs Baldwin's Tally Ho, his combination hunter, show horse and point-to-point mount, was reserve. Jiggs rode J. A. McKinnon's Tarad to tie with Tally Ho for reserve honors and when the two horses were asked to hack off the tie, their rider was in somewhat of a quandry. However, he asked Miss Kay Von Tress to ride Tally Ho.

In the open jumping division there were so many good rounds that the jump offs in each class kept going higher and higher. Pat Dixon, riding his grand All Ablaze, took the tricolor with Miss Phyllis Lose on her honest and good Cassadol, taking reserve. Miss Peggy Mills brought out a new horse at this show—Country Girl—a grey and white paint filly, just 3 years old. She appears to have the makings of one of the top open horses in the country.

Little Miss Sally Liversidge, on her Sal's Gal, did an outstanding job among the juniors. Among her accomplishments was 3rd in the working hunter hack class. There were 27 horses in this event and Sally, who is just 12 and has only been in the saddle two weeks since breaking her leg on Christmas eve, really got in there and rode.

Franklin Spring

The Franklin (Tenn.) Spring Horse Show program gave prominence to W. Stuart Symington's definition of sportsmanship: "Honest Rivalry Courteous Relations and Graceful Acceptance of Results." This definition, by a former Secretary of Air Forces, is most concise and the best we have ever seen.

The show was held April 21 on the Green Acres Farm of Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Jones. Eleven classes were scheduled but while the sixth was being judged, the rain began, rather gently at first, but the clouds were so close and black the judge very hastily finished her work so the class could be dismissed. Nor could the show be finished the next afternoon, for the pasture was even then still flooded.

SHOW CORRESPONDENT
Margaret P. Leonard

Frog Hollow Pony

There should be more pony shows like the Frog Hollow Pony Show held April 21 in Purcellville, Va. It was put on entirely by the local children who, to save printers bills, wrote out the prize lists in long-hand. They made their own jumps, painted them and the only grown person in the ring was the judge.

A goodly number of entries turned out, among them some of the top ponies in the country, getting their spring schooling early.

Miss Nancy Lee Griffith rode her nice chestnut pony, Red Wing, to annex the championship. In for reserve was Susan's Pride, owned and ridden by Miss Susan Anderson.

PLACE: Purcellville, Va.

TIME: April 21.

JUDGE: Dorothy Fred.

CH.: Red Wing.

Res.: Susan's Pride.

Gallant Fox Handicap Very Colorful Event
As County Delight Takes Command

Joe H. Palmer

The last two week ends proved that racing is where you find it. A week earlier there had been the Kentucky Derby, the most publicized race of the year, with the panoply and color which it usually has, and it had proved a rather unexciting horse race, with the issue settled three-sixteenths of a mile out, and with some of the better horses failing dismally to run their normal races, if there is any such thing as a normal race for a 1951 3-year-old. On May 12, there was the Gallant Fox Handicap, with $60,000 added to be sure, but no especial fuss made over it, and it proved to be a tingling race, with every one of the nine starters except First Nighter in it at some stage, and with a four-horse finish in which the 1st and the 4th nose were perhaps five feet apart. You wouldn't have picked the winner, for money, twenty yards out.

It began with Steel Blue in front, but Cochise soon overpowered him. Then Lone Eagle had a run at the leader, getting to his heels but no farther. On the Mark made one play down the back stretch. County Delight was always close, and on the stretch turn he finished Cochise and drew clear. Then Palestinian, Greek Ship, and Lotowhite, which had been trailers in that order, each began one big run. A furlong out County Delight led Palestinian by a half-length, Greek Ship third with Lotowhite at his throat. The four kept getting closer together in the final dive for the wire, but the order held. The jockeys were, from first to fourth, Guerin, Atkinson, Arcaro, and McCreary, and whatever you may think of any of them, every one of them can finish, so this was a drive to remember.

County Delight, beside getting $47,900 for winning, got a special mark because he was the only one of the field to run all the way, the other three of the first four taking it fairly easy in the opening stages. And he is probably the most improved of the 4-year-olds, moving from the 102 pounds under which he finished third (behind Sunglow and Three Rings) in the Widener Handicap, to the 119 which he carried successfully in the Gallant Fox.

He's by Count Fleet, as it seems a horse has to be these days, and like Count Turf, was foaled at John D. Hertz's Stoner Creek Farm. He was not, however, shipped to California as was the Derby winner, proving that you can do it either way. Count Turf, as you know, cost $3,700. County Delight was a little more in demand, and Jim Ryan, bidding for Paul Mellon's Rokeby Stable, had to go to $32,000 for him.

As a 2-year-old he didn't justify it, winning one of three starts and $2,050. Last year he won only one race, but got 2nd in the Leonard Richards Stakes and 3rd in the Kent. This year his stakes experience consisted of a 3rd in the Widener, a 2nd in the Maryland Handicap, a 3rd in the Grey Lag in which he was beaten only a neck for all of it, and now successive victories in the Dixie and the Gallant Fox. His winnings are just short of $100,000.

Palestinian, giving the winner four pounds, seems to be making a successful return, though he has still to win in three starts this year. He went out at three with a bowed tendon, but he raced successfully on it last year, and he was finishing with great determination last Saturday. Greek Ship also improved on his only previous start this year; he had shown some speed in the Grey

Lag and then had faltered. This time he trailed in 7th place for six furlongs, and came on stoutly, and Lotowhite, which put in a good one in the Excelsior and a bad one in the Grey Lag, came from 9th place for his 4th.

Two of the most expensive horses in the field were Lone Eagle ($35,000) and Steel Blue ($36,000), but both were bought as made horses, and neither has done much yet to justify their prices. Lone Eagle has won one race, an ordinary overnight event, in nine starts this year, and Steel Blue has won one, also overnight, in three tries. Both have some speed, however, so there is a chance they may turn it to account.

The Jamaica meeting ended with a gratifying increase both in attendance and betting. In some quarters this was attributed to the closing down of the bookmakers in New York, which is to ignore that something of the same thing was showing in the fall meetings of 1950, when there were no Kefauvers around. At all events, the attendance averaged 26,900 for the 36 days, which is a five per cent increase over last year's spring meet at Jamaica, and the betting averaged $2,123,000, an increase of 15 per cent. Comparing the single 1951 meeting with the two which Jamaica had in 1950 (also totaling 36 days), the distribution was up a little, the daily average being $38,236 against $36,321. That's 5.2 per cent, or less than the increase in business by a considerable margin.

The Youthful Stakes, which has included more good horses among its winners—Requested, Lucky Draw, Ferd, and Battlefield in recent years—than you would expect of a 2-year-old stakes so early in the year, went this time to Primate, owned by the Starmount Stable of E. B. Benjamin. Arcaro was riding the winner of the Youthful for the second time, and it is interesting now to note that the runner-up to Battlefield last year was Count Turf.

Primate has very little history, but what there is is good. He is a son of Some Chance—Edified, by *Jacopo, was bred by his owner and foaled at Claiborne Farm near Paris, Ky. on March 23, 1949. He started out in Florida, running in two of the three-furlong dashes there, and was 2nd in both. He kept up this habit by running 2nd again in his 1st start at Jamaica, but he won his next, a maiden race, by four lengths or more. The Youthful was his 5th start, so he has two 1sts and three 2nds and he's won $15,300 now.

Pimlico 'Chasing

F. A. Clark's Lone Fisherman Gallops Home Free In Jervis Spencer Handicap; Reno Sam 3 Lengths the Best On May 9

William Jaeger

Lone Fisherman, carrying the light blue and yellow sash of F. Ambrose Clark of Westbury, L. I., took down the chips all by his lonesome self in the revived Jervis Spencer Steeplechase Handicap at Pimlico on the dreary afternoon of May 11 at Pimlico.

The Spencer, named for the late chairman of the Maryland Racing Commission and the first major jumping race at a recognized track this year, drew a field of eight good infield performers over the about two miles, 15-jump Maryland Jockey Club layout that was rather treacherous due to early morning rains.

Handled with adeptness by Jockey Elwood Carter, Lone Fisherman came bounding home 12 lengths clear of Joe Smerski's Whatta Knight, which had led during the early part of the journey until Lone Fisherman took over approaching the next to last jump on the backstretch the last time.

Whatta Knight, the speed of his field under Jockey Clyde Nix, was no match for the winner after being displaced but outgamed Lazy F. Ranch's Extra Points by 3-4 of a length for 2nd. The latter, ridden by Jockey Harry Harris, came from well back to be a bold challenger on the final bend but weakened steadily after clearing the last barrier to be 3rd, 8 lengths clear of Dion K. Kerr, Jr.'s Port Raider, the 4th horse.

After that came Rokeby Stable's Genancoke, the favorite; M. A. Cushman's *Kipper and Happy Hill Farm's Adaptable. Good Marks, owned by C. Mahlon Kline and an entry with Adaptable, was the lone casualty in the stake, falling at the 12th fence. His jockey, E. Phelps, was uninjured.

Despite a beating by Lone Fisherman at one of the hunt meets this spring, Genancoke was made the favorite over the Clark horse due to his particular liking for the Pimlico course. But the gray Jack Skinner-trained horse, after being with the pace all the way, flattened out badly in the final run despite severe urging by Jockey Tommy Field.

Lone Fisherman, a 5-year-old bay gelded son of Annapolis and Night Heron, was clocked in 3.48 3-5 under 148 pounds, considered excellent time in view of the fact that the course was considerably off.

In the winner's circle following the race, Mrs. Francis Bellhouse, pretty wife of Lone Fisherman's trainer, accepted a handsome trophy from S. Bryce Wing, president of the National Steeplechase and Hunts Association and also a steward at Pimlico.

38th running, Jervis Spencer 'Chase 'Cap. 2 mi., 4 & up. Purse, $7,500 added. Net value to the winner, $3,675; 2nd, $1,500; 3rd, $750; 4th, $375. Winner: D. K. (9), by Annapolis—Night Heron, by *Tourist II. Trainer: F. T. Bellhouse. Breeder: F. A. Clark. Time: 3.48 3-5.

1. Lone Fisherman, (F. A. Clark), 148, E. Carter.
2. Whatta Knight, (J. Smerski), 135, C. Nix.
3. Extra Points, (Lazy F Ranch), 140, H. Harris.

8 started, 7 finished; also ran (order of finish): D. K. Kerr, Jr.'s Port Raider, 137, M. Ferral; Rokeby Stables' Genancoke, 139, T. Field; M. A. Cushman's *Kipper, 139, P. D. Adams; Happy Hill Farm's Adaptable, 142, P. Smithwick; fell (12th): C. M. Kline's Good Marks, 135, E. Phelps. Won easily by 12; place driving by 3/4; show same by 8. No scratches.

The mother-son combination of Trainer Claire Adams and Jockey Frank (Dooley) Adams provided the winner of the steeplechase at Pimlico on May 9. The horse was Mrs. M. Walsh's Reno Sam, a 9-year-old black gelding by *Friar Dolan—True, which came to payoff territory three lengths clear of Anthony Bonuomo's Phalanger, a rank outsider in the field of ten $4,500-$4,000 platers.

The event was over the customary "about 2 miles" route and Reno Sam toted 149 pounds over the fast infield course in 3.52.

Earning the small 3rd money was Mrs. W. H. Perry's Trepid. He was a length to the rear of Phalanger and 7 lengths to the good of J. M. Mulford's Son d'Esprit. Following the first four to finish were Herbert Dunn's Leche Hombre, the favorite; N. Flax's Gay Venture and Mrs. T. A. Randolph's Uncle Joe.

There were three mishaps in the race. Brookmeade Stable's Band Leader, one of the choices, became a crooper at the 6th brush while leading and tossed Jockey D. Marzani; Auburn Farm's *Luan Casca went down at the 13th obstacle with Jockey E. Phelps; and Sanford Stud Farm's *Roll Call 2nd fell at the 14th fence with Jockey A. P. Smithwick. For Jockey Marzani, it was his third spill in as many days of steeplechase racing at the Maryland Jockey Club plant.

Reno Sam took the lead when Band Leader went down and continued on the front end to win easily. Phalanger was with the pace all the way and had no excuses. Trepid

The Grand Annual Steeplechase

Australia's Oldest and Toughest 'Chase

Arnold Shrimpton

I'll wager you have never heard of the Warrnambool Grand Annual Steeplechase. In case I'm right, don't let it worry you because you'll be in a lot of good company. Yet, the fact remains that the race is the oldest and toughest steeplechase in the Antipodes, and many Australians avow it to be a rougher event than either English's Grand National, or our own Maryland Hunt Cup. It has been in existence since 1872 (although its first running was in 1865) and takes place at the little up-country town of Warrnambool in the State of Victoria. Should you wish to locate it exactly (for the life of me, I cannot imagine why you would) you will find it to be 160 miles southeast of Melbourne.

The Warrnambool Racing Club holds a 3-day meet every May. On the opening day the feature event is the Warrnambool Cup over 2 miles on the flat. The second day is a mixed program of hurdle and flat racing devoted entirely to amateur riders; while the closing day is the famed Grand Annual. They come from all over Australia to see this unique event. From every state and every strata of racing—"rich man, poor man, beggerman, thief". Millionaire owners fly in with their own planes; battling stables try to win one to pay the winter feed bill; bookmakers and their crews, breeders (sheep farmers) and just plain racing fans—they all converge on Warrnambool for the races. They come in gala spirit and holiday attire—to picnic, to gossip and exchange farm news, to sell and barter horses, to meet their friends and neighbors, to paint the town vivid crimson at night, and then, recuperate in the brilliant sunshine by lying around the racecourse all of the following day; but above all, they come to see and cheer the winner of the Grand Annual.

The race is run over 3 1-2 miles and 33 fences, which certainly gives it 3 up on Aintree. It also boasts the steepest hill in the world for a horse to climb. The gradient is a long and gradual one, being well over a mile in length and toward the end it is so steep that the field is slowed down to a hand gallop. When they reach the crest they then race for 3 furlongs on the top of a natural plateau and jump 2 big fences before starting the formidable descent. This dash down hill is a half-mile drop at break-neck speed and any of the riders will tell you they would sooner come up the hill twice, than go down once. To add to the hazard, right at the very bottom stands the celebrated Man

Trap. This one is the Warrnambool Canal Turn, for it is set at a deceiving left angle to the horses and riders rushing pell-mell towards it. The trick seems to be to slow your horse down, take it slowly at a direct angle and then turn your mount to the left and continue. If you are aboard a bolter, you may kiss your chance good-bye as you start to come down hill, because he will run out for sure and continue straight onto the road when he sees the Man Trap, and, frankly, you cannot blame him. If you are lucky enough to get over, you gallop up a long stretch, take 3 more fences and the water, and go 'round and do it again. The second circuit includes a road-double, an in-and-out, two stone walls, and sundry other assorted trivia that are just thrown in for good measure. In 1909, and again in 1934, the entire field fell.

The reception the winning rider and horse receives when they return to ask permission to dismount is tumultuous. Everyone seems to go stark, staring mad, and two mounted policemen have to escort the winner in. It is most certainly true that no Warrnambool winner has ever won the Grand National (or, for that matter, ever tried to, as far as I know) but, its many champions can also say that it would be most unlikely for a Grand National winner to be able to win the Warrnambool Annual. He might conceivably be able to manage the fences, but the pace down hill and the Man Trap at the bottom would most surely find him out, for it's truly a pace that tells.

Just as a matter of comparison, here is a table of the nine toughest steeplechases in the world, together with their distances and number of jumps. As you can see the Warrnambool Grand Annual is well up there, and if you ever get to Australia, try to arrange your visit to coincide with it. You'll see and experience spills and thrills galore, and have the time of your life into the bargain.

The Warrnambool Grand Annual (Victoria), 33 jumps—3 1-2 miles; The English Grand National (Aintree), 30 jumps—4 1-2 miles; The Radnor Hunt Cup (Malvern, Pa.), 26 jumps—4 miles; The Australian Grand National (Melbourne), 25 jumps—3 1-8 miles; The Great Northern Steeplechase (Auckland, N. Z.), 25 jumps—4 miles; The Grand Steeplechase (Paris, France), 25 jumps—4 1-16 miles; The Maryland Hunt Cup (Glydon, Md.), 22 jumps—about 4 miles; The Great Eastern Steeplechase (Oakbank, South Australia), 21 jumps—3 1-4 miles; The American Grand National (Belmont), 19 jumps—3 miles.

Radnor Hunt Races

2nd position as Mister Mars closed fast to finish 3rd ahead of Mrs. Walter F. Wickes, Jr.'s Fonsilver, winner of The King Haiglar at Camden this spring. A very tired Vaden King jogged in to finish.

Novice brush horses opened the card to face the starter in the Radnor Novice Brush Race. The event brought out 7 horses and Jockey C. V. B. Cushman went away first on H. W. Anderson's Whippernock, followed by Jockey J. Zimmerman and Mrs. Walter F. Wickes, Jr.'s Seven Pillars and Mrs. Alan M. Scaife's winner of 2 flat races this spring, Blue Teal. Blue Teal and Jockey A. P. Smithwick quickly took over the pace to lead Seven Pillars over the water jump as the latter put in a bad one. Evidently Jockey Zimmerman didn't want another experience of getting out of his saddle so far as he did at the Virginia Gold Cup with Avonwood because he was setting deeply and got Seven Pillars right back on the bit without delay. This bobble cost him ground and Whippernock moved into 2nd position ahead of him. Blue Teal was going well and was still leading Whippernock over the 7th and here Mrs. S. T. Patterson's Pollock Light and Jockey C. Nix parted company.

The field was really strung out approaching the 10th and Jockey Zimmerman began to make his move on Seven Pillars. He held a slight advantage over Blue Teal at the 11th but the race was his as he held the field safe to win by 4 lengths. Jockey M. Ferral had been rating W. B. Cock's *Killarney Maid just off the pace and made his move in the final stages to place ahead of Blue Teal. The riders still had a job on their hands as they pulled up because the loose Pollock Light was weaving in among them.

Out of the original 27 entries for The White Horse Plate, about 1 mile on the flat, 22 horses were ready to go postward. The event was run in two divisions with 12 making up the first field. An unusual turn of events was that the first two horses to leave the post were the first two across the wire. Jockey H. Rulon broke first with Morris H. Dixon's Maryador and there was no catching this 4-year-old filly, even though Jockey J. Zimmerman came awfully close to doing that with a 3-year-old filly, Walter F. Wickes, Jr.'s Springdale. Maryador drove in by a nose with Springdale placing 3-4 of a length ahead of Mrs. John Strawbridge, Jr.'s Homesun. Only 11 of the 12 finished as Jockey C. Connelly was pulling up James G. Leiper, Jr.'s *Salford, 2nd when he fell off.

Mrs. W. C. Hunneman, Jr.'s *Octavia's Daughter appeared as though she might make it ladies' day in the flat ranks as Jockey E. Carter sent her away winging from the flag. Charles E. Mather, 2nd's Avonwood, which had taken a distinct dislike to the Warrenton hurdle course the previous week, found the Radnor going to his liking and raced well up behind *Octavia's Daughter. However, Main Earth Stable's *Allfor, which had won over brush at Warrenton, entered into the picture on the far side and Jockey J. Murphy sent the German-bred along fast to take over the pace setting job. This was another close finish with just a 3-4 length gap separating the winning *Allfor and Avonwood at the finish as *Octavia's Daughter dropped back to 3rd ahead of Happy Hill Farm's Knocks Twice. W. F. Wickes, Jr.'s Bronze Wing hit the beacon at the half and lost Jockey E. Jackson.

When the small 3-horse field came out for The National Hunt Cup, about 2 miles over brush they couldn't just hop through any holes which might have been made in the jumps during the first brush event. During the two flat races, a truck load of brush was taken onto the course and repairs were made quickly and efficiently, restoring the course to its proper size. Right away the race settled down between R. K. Mellon's *Irish Easter and Irl A. Daffin's *Irish Monkey. *Irish Easter won at Pimlico on the 8th, equalling the track record and *Irish Monkey had run a good race on the flat at Warrenton to finish 3rd in his only outing this year. The *Irish Easter on top over the water jump but at the 3rd, the liverpool, Jockey E. Carter and *Irish Monkey took command. These two horses were really running and jumping with *Irish Monkey on the inside. Around the turn and coming into the 7th, *Irish Monkey went to the outside and then cut back to the inside but no damage was done and he held his lead over this jump. At the 11th it was still *Irish Monkey holding a slight lead over *Irish Easter and *Lancel went in deeply, shaking up Jockey C. Nix.

3rd starter was Mrs. Henry Obre's *Lancel. A. P. Smithwick had

Back on the turn once more, *Irish Monkey again went wide as Jockey Smithwick was challenging him on *Irish Easter and the two riders were really going all out at the 13th and last. The stretch drive was fast and as the horses went under the wire, it was *Irish Monkey by a neck with *Irish Easter some 10 lengths in front of *Lancel. This gave Mr. Daffin his first leg on the trophy, Mr. Mellon having gained a victory in 1949 with Dillsburg.

No scratches marred the program for the Radnor Novice Timber Race, about 3 miles over timber. It is always interesting to see what the novice timber events will bring out from the hunting fields and point-to-points. This event even dipped into the horse show ranks for R. K. Mellon's *Tudorian (champion as a 3-year-old at the Dublin show) and Brooks Parker's Easter Fox. On May 11 Mr. Parker was in Vienna, Austria and at 4:00 p. m. on the 12th he was at Radnor, getting there with just time to take a deep breath before his horse was saddled.

Mihale, John Grew's hunter which left the New England shores for a winter in Pennsylvania and a good race at Butler, Md. when he missed being home safe by losing his rider at the 2nd last jump, was sent off to a fast start by his owner. The pair of them quickly drew away and at the 4th were leading Mr. E. Weymouth on George T. Weymouth's *McGinty Moore and Jockey R. Gough on Mrs. Simon T. Paterson's Phils Pet. Mihale was travelling the long way round as he didn't save ground on the turns but he looked very much the horse to beat as he held a 3-length advantage over *McGinty Moore at the 7th with Phils Pet 3rd ahead of Jockey W. Dixon on Southern Saint. Southern Saint is another of those Western-bred winners over timber, having won the novice race at Whitmarsh the previous Saturday, as well as ladies' races at Brandywine and the Point-to-Point.

Downhill into the 10th, Mr. Weymouth came up on even terms with Mihale but in jumping the 10th, he bumped him. Although he wasn't jumping his best, *McGinty Moore continued to handle the pace setting duties and held a 1-1-2 length lead over Mihale at the 14th with Southern Saint still 3rd ahead of Jockey E. H. Bennett and *Tudorian. Mihale took over at the 15th as *McGinty Moore hit hard and lost ground. At the 17th all of the horses were running in a bunch but after taking this jump, Mr. J. Kelly had to pull up Easter Fox as he was bleeding.

The 18th and 19th are out of sight it isn't until the horses appear at the gap that the leader can be discerned. Somewhere along that backstretch Jockey Dixon had made his bid on Southern Saint and the pair now headed the field downhill toward the 20th and last. With *McGinty Moore right behind him. Southern Saint took off at the 20 but hit hard, falling. This caused *McGinty Moore to lose ground and his position and the horses were hardly more than a few strides away from the jump when Jockey Bennett really moved on *Tudorian. Around the turn and into the stretch it was *Tudorian with Mihale again being brought up but the race was *Tudorian's by 8 lengths with Mihale placing by a nose ahead of *McGinty Moore. Southern Saint was remounted to finish 5th behind Jockey C. V. B. Cushman and Thomas Stokes' *Tolbiac.

The Radnor Bumper Flat Race completed the card and 9 horses went postward. Jockey J. Zimmerman soon had Arthur E. Pew, Jr.'s *Rallywood heading the field with Mrs. Howard C. Fair's Harrigan 2nd ahead of Jockey C. V. B. Cushman and E. H. Quigley's Cross Creek.

At the mile Mr. Pew's Tahltan, which had not started since his outing in 1949 over timber at Rolling Rock, came up to challenge the leading *Rallywood but the order changed as the horses came along the back stretch. Jockey M. Ferral had moved up on Miss Anna W. Bockius' Mighty Casey and as the horses came into the far turn, Mighty Casey was in front of *Rallywood and Tahltan. The snow fence makes a rather sharp turn to enter the stretch and as Mighty Casey and *Rallywood battled it out for the lead, they bumped, Jockey Ferral losing his bat. Into the stretch and *Rallywood raced ahead to win by 2 lengths, Mighty Casey placing 5 lengths ahead of Mrs. John Strawbridge, Jr.'s Wygant.

With only two more meetings on the eastern spring circuit, Sidney Watters, Jr. leads the trainers with 11 hunt meeting winners. Among the riders, Jockey E. Carter's winning ride on *Irish Monkey at Radnor to defeat Jockey A. P. Smithwick on *Irish Easter, makes them tie with 6 winners each. F. A. Clark still maintains the lead among owners as 7 of his hunt meeting entries have won.

James River Hunt Schooling

The James River Hunt can justly boast of the largest and best show in its 6-year-old history of existence. In spite of conflicting events elsewhere on April 22, all classes at Phoebus, Va. were filled to record capacity.

Teen-age riders virtually nosed out the oldsters for final awards, Banks Talley and E. J. Routten being the sole survivors. Miss Nancy Lee Huffman and Waverly Molly captured the grand hunter championship by virtue of winning the conformation hunter tri-color and reserve working hunter championship, but bowing to Banks Talley whose consistent Inky won the working hunter award by 1 point. Young Jimmy Hatcher, riding his 4-year-old Candlewick, was reserve grand champion, having won the green hunter award and the reserve in the conformation division. Close on his heels in the green division was teen-ager Miss B. Schenk on her nice looking 3-year-old Sun Hazard.

Miss Marguerite Mugler, another popular and capable teen-ager, had her hands full in all divisions by showing entries for various owners. Her efforts resulted in the reserve jumper championship on Paul Hartz' Golden Maid behind the veteran E. J. Routten's owner-ridden Gayle's Lady. Incidentally, the latter secured her 2nd leg on that challenge trophy for the modified Olympic.

Six-year-old Miss Beverly Harrison will be something to watch this year. She and her pony Bigger Bit nosed out their rival Dixie Clipper, owned by Jeff Sinclair and ridden by 8-year-old Charles Haas, for the pony tri-color.

Junior Ak-Sar-Ben

The 17th Junior Ak-Sar-Ben was presented on March 17 in the coliseum at the state fair grounds, Lincoln, Nebr. by the Block and Bridle Club of the University of Nebraska college of agriculture.

The jumper class was a special event which created much interest among the spectators. The class was judged by Fred Larson and the winner was Big Mo, owned and ridden by Clyde Henson.

Round Hill Farm Spring

Favorable weather encouraged sportsmen of Kansas City to turn out en masse for the Round Hill Farm annual spring horse show on April 29. The star studded line up of Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Bitler and Mr. and Mrs. George Bunting, Jr.'s show proved to dubious Kansas citizens that an all day hunter and jumper show of this caliber could and was a terrific success. Classes of 18 to 25 horses proved a great responsibility for the judge.

Pappy of the Evenbob Farm garnered a succession of ribbons to place him on top for the conformation hunter championship. Olga B., a Claude Coons entry, emerged victorious with the young hunter tri-color. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Shinkle arrived with a splendid stable and their Drew closed fast for the reserve in the young division and tied with James Orthwein's Beau Lawrin for reserve in the conformation ranks.

The Joe Mackey, Jr. Memorial Trophy, the feature of the day, was donated by O. G. Bitler. Robert Egan earned a good win with Mrs. Bunting's Hi Way over a rough F. E. I. course in the ring, but he was only a second in front of Mrs. Bitler's Hoodie (same rider up). Miss Natalie Nafziger's Royal Gold pushed both horses with his two equally clean rounds but time divided the class.

Sedgefield-High Point Lions Club

May 3, 4 and 5 again saw the Sedgefield (N. C.) Hunt and the High Point Lions Club joining forces to put on another of their highly successful horse shows attended by some of the south's finest Thoroughbreds. An extra dash was added by the presence in the ring of "Honey" Craven, complete with top hat, pink coat and bugle.

One of the nicest features of this year's show was the fact that each division had a fair share of local entries which refused to be awed by the top flight competition. Champion in the working hunter division was Guard On, truly a hunter which works for he is owned by the Sedgefield huntsman, George Thomas. He was ridden in the show by Miss Margaret Richardson. Lakelawn Farms' old campaigner, Renown, which ventured into the timber ranks this spring for a winning round, performed in his own steady way to annex the reserve award.

In his last show under Micky Walsh, Mrs. Audrey Kennedy's Bright Light was awarded 5 blues to win the conformation hunter tricolor for the third straight year and retire the Welch Harris Challenge Trophy.

Top green hunter of the show was William J. Brewster's North Slope. This youngster, ridden by Jack Goodwin, improved steadily throughout his first show away from home. Missy, exhibited by Lakelawn Farms, again gave him a close race and was pinned reserve. This division was perhaps the most keenly contested of the show with about 20 young hunters all turning in good rounds over the outside course and displaying manners in the ring.

Miss Joan Walsh piloted Seven Star Stables' spotted newcomer, Bright Eyes, over the jumper courses to the tri-color in that division. Tar Boy, owned by Lakelawn Farms, was close behind for reserve.

Horsemastership

Silvermine School of Horsemastership Horse Show Mounted Troop was held at Carter Street and Silvermine Road on May 6.

Horsemanship classes for "from not yet 5" through 18 were spiced with a variety of events of great spectator appeal, so that from 9:00 a. m. to 6:00 p. m. the show ran as a simultaneous double-feature with one class in the ring and another on the outside course.

For sheer excitement the class for open jumpers, "Olympic Type Outside Course, F. E. I. Rules", vied with the teams of 3 jumpers which was also held over an Olympic type course, team members jumping individually and the lowest aggregate score winning. The open jumper class was won by the New Canaan Mounted Troop's Sky Rocket, while the Junior Essex Troop took both 1st and 2nd in the team class.

Trail Club of Essex

Mrs. F. W. Janssen's G. Junior swept the hunter classes at the Trail Club of Essex County Horse Show at Montclair, N. J. on April 28. This fine 4-year-old black gelding, formerly owned by Micky Walsh, won every class except the hack class, in which he placed 2nd. Mrs. Joan Janssen very ably rode him throughout the show. Carbon Copy, with owner-rider Miss Suzy Ray, annexed the reserve. Miss Ray also won the medal hunter seat.

There were many saddle and equitation classes and the hunter-jumper people found that the knock-down-and-out was worth waiting for. R. D. Messner's My Folly, with Vic Goines up, Dr. Robert Rost with his Sargent, Miss Connie Raymond up, had to jump off three times before they were pinned in that order. ## HUNTINGDON VALLEY HUNT

Hollings,
Bucks County,
Pennsylvania.
Established 1914.
Recognized 1914.

The determination to hunt on a rain-soaked Saturday has always posed a curious question to my mind; ordinarily if one tried hard to use logic he would decide that the day would, at best, be a poor one. But such seems never to be the case for whenever rain-filled gusts sweep across the countryside my expectation leaps unreasonably to its highest point. I simply "hone" to try the next covert quickly and am convinced that its tenant will run far to the northernmost country for a record point. The meet at Mr. Parmentier's on February 17th did very little to mend my intuitive ways.

Hounds moved off promptly at 11 A. M. oblivious of the persistent drizzle and headed towards Charlie Molesworth's Farm which is two miles south on Old York Road. A tiny but determined Field accompanied the pack to this first covert. Drawing southward, Huntsman Lobley found very little to substantiate my aforementioned lofty expectations. However, as hounds cast themselves forward into Mrs. Beechum's, Fulmor Miller viewed a nice red fellow hi-balling northward directly towards the Molesworth pastures. Hounds reversed themselves, then pitched forward, their deafening cry proclaiming scent "breath-high". On the y raced, veering sharply to the right where this brave fox paid his compliments to the local trapper by running directly through his front yard and across the macadam road into the thick woods behind La Playa Farm.

Without hesitation he crossed the high tension line and flew down into the tree-littered ravine which borders Tim McCarthy's old place. A brief check here was indeed welcome to the Field which was faced with the triple disadvantage of heavy going, impassable woods-paths, and an ever-increasing rain. Hounds were determined to make this pilot run or else and run he did! Leaving this protective ridge he swung towards Lahaska and then set his mask for Buckingham Mountain some two miles away. On through Bill Clark's open fields, across Route 202, and into Harper Atkinson's hayfield he sped with the pack about one half mile behind. Here again, hounds were brought to their noses and despite repeated efforts could only inch their way to the edge of Buckingham's rocky slopes. The prospect of spending the remainder of the day on rough, tree-strewn paths seemed unappealing to all and M. F. H. Douglas Paxson decided to whip off this fast disappearing line. As hounds ran this chase was nearly 4 miles and the time was exactly 40 minutes.

With spirits bolstered by such surprising good fortune, hounds and Field moved up Street Road, back through Lahaska and were cast into Mrs. Barnwell's. Almost instantly one of Chase's big puppies opened and no sooner had this been verified by the older reliables than the Field found themselves galloping again. This time hounds seemed to run even faster as they raced across a big open field and poured over the bordering stone wall. Swinging right towards Street Road they doubled back and, gathering still greater momentum, pursued their quarry who with complete abandon scurried through the old Friends Cemetery and disappeared over its peaked walls.

Now, good foxhunters, prove yourselves to be or not to be the right sort! Four feet of field stone and cement with a treacherous wooden peak and—who knows what on the landing side! Those who were still with hounds at this point gratefully followed Furmor Miller's flying lead over this imposing barrier and were well up with the pack as it rolled across the two adjoining meadows and plunged into Mr. Ashbridge's thicket. Pausing not one moment this fox ran through the nearby pine covert and broke out through the bordering hayfield. Turning right-handed he crossed the old Back Road into Cooper's lower pasture where his cunning and speed proved no match for the unbelievable scenting conditions and this unrelenting pack of Penn-Marydels. The kill was at 10 minutes past 1 o'clock and terminated a fast 20 minutes which covered about 3 1-2 miles. Trophies were presented to Mrs. Tony Garvan.

Thus came the climax to a fine day and just reward for a determined intuition.

"—Here's health to every sportsman, be he stableman or lord. If his heart be true, I care not what his pocket may afford; And may he ever pleasantly each gallant sport pursue If he takes his liquor fairly, and his fences fairly too."

—Sally A.

John Carroll Hunts Hounds On Strength Of Artistic Ability

It is interesting that a man whose ancestors were among the first importers of foxhounds to this country and who were foxhunting in Maryland two hundred years ago, is not only hunting hounds in New York State, but painting them as well. John Carroll is one of the foremost artists in this country. He is not a sporting artist in the strict sense of the word, for although there is no more sporting minded foxhunter, his art work is principally taken up with imaginative feminine subjects, and portrait studies.

Mr. Carroll's picture on the cover of The Chronicle this week is owned by Elliott S. Nichols of the Metamora Hunt. His work in the sporting field was brought to the attention of this department by the well known sporting book collector and dealer, Sydney Smith of Canaan, who is himself a good foxhunter and former M. F. H.

Mr. Carroll's hounds are known as the Carroll. It is a private pack with 12 couple of American foxhounds hunting the country around East Chatham, and is hunted by the Master with the help of honorary and professional whippers-in. Foxhunting is strictly a hobby with Mr. Carroll whose painting must of necessity come first. So successful is he, however, that his work supports his foxhunting establishment and permits him to live as a gentleman farmer, hunting two days a week, Thursdays and Saturdays and bye days from August to December.

The artist is a member of the National Academy and his portrait studies are greatly sought after, one of his most recent commissions being to do the moving picture actress Hedy Lamar. To be able to produce enough pictures to support his horses, hounds and his 300 acre farm must be a herculean task, and according to an article that appeared about Mr. Carroll in the January 1951 American Artist, Mr. Carroll has to work 16 hours a day to do it. To measure his success one must hunt with him over his 15 by 25 mile country and then see some of his canvases such as Summer Afternoon, The White Flower, or his portraits of Ann Bolton or of Mrs. Carroll in hunting clothes. When one has done these things then one can truly begin to realize something of the imaginative skill of this unusual artist sportsman whose striking picture on the cover of The Chronicle of hounds leaving kennels in the early dawn while the dew is on the grass, is one that must reach a responsive chord in the mind's eye of many foxhunters waiting now for those early cubbing mornings.

Point 2 Point Held By Arapahoe Hunt On April 29

Hildegard Neill

Point 2 Point—so were printed the ribbons for the Arapahoe Hunt's race meet this year and since the event was neither a real point-to-point nor exactly a hunter trial, the puzzled printer's mistake turned out to be a fairly suitable name for an event which we tried for the first time on April 29, at Littleton, Colo., compromise had to be made since point-to-points in the past have been so fast and grueling over our rather rugged terrain, that there were few willing to ask such a test of their honest, hardworking hunters. In order to encourage all the members of the Field, young and old, bold and timid, to compete, the following test was devised:

Huntsman George Beeman planned a course of about 4 1-2 miles across hunting country, and rode it at a good hunting pace on several different mounts. Taking the average time for his rides he established a time that allowed for no dawdling but on the other hand one not so fast that horses which have been hunted regularly through the season would be distressed to maintain. No one knew the course or the time before the race.

The 29th was a beautiful spring day and a large group of spectators watched the event from the hill top known as the Rocks, while the riders, at 3-minute intervals, were sent off by starter Laine Phipps a few hundred feet in front of them. There was a wide choice of route to the entries whose first point was the Pollack windmill where they had to pick up a chip, and then on to the Tower windmill for the second chip, before returning to the Rocks for the finish where the committee was busy with stopwatches, clocking the riders as they started and finished. There was a minimum of four fences which had to be crossed by gate or by panel, and the course was a fair test of our hunting country. From the start at the Rocks it led across several hills and draws through wooded country crossed by fences. The second stretch from one windmill to the next was up a long sloping ridge and the last part led down through the little hills and valleys of the Tower. Hardly two riders rode it in the same way but the amazing fact was that most of them came in within a few seconds of the standard time of 16:15.

Of the six entries in the women's race, Miss Gloria Hayes on Renarde Rouge came in on the split second at 16:15 exactly. Mrs. W. H. Neill on Wilkinson was 2nd place with 16:05 and the writer on Little Peter was 3rd with 16:31. Fast time was given preference to slow time in case of ties.

In the men's race Earl Morris on Borella and Wesley Spurry on Betty tied for 1st with times of 16:07, Mr. Spurry winning the flip. Third place went to Herb Powers on Reno Remit with a time of 15:58. The fastest time was Uvedale Lambert's, who rode Dotsero in at 14:56, and several of the 9 entries in this race were over 2 minutes overtime.

It was a pleasant day in every way and enjoyed by all the contestants especially who each and everyone, regardless of their times, had a thrilling and exhilarating ride. The weak points in the system seemed to be that there was no way to allow for different paces of individual horses—Mrs. Lambert's Jenny Camp mare Jennerin obviously covers more ground with the same amount of effort than the average horse—and the fact that there was

Fair Acres Hunter Trials Attended By Record Breaking Crowd

Elizabeth S. Von Tress

The 3rd annual Fair Acres Hunter Trials at Westtown, Pa. on May 5 got a real break on the weather this year, bringing out a record crowd and 40 good horses to Crawford Twaddell's farm. Sun Echo, a handsome chestnut owned by Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Murtagh, won both the open hunters and the hack class with Mr. Murtagh up. The gelding was jumping brilliantly and he and his rider received quite a hand when they came in between the flags.

While Mr. Twaddell owned many of the horses that placed in the ribbons, they were ridden in several of the classes by a group of young women who hunt them with the Fair Acres pack. Mrs. Davis Oat won the ladies' class on James Lamb's Rip, an honest hunter if ever there was one. In the team class he was ridden by Mrs. Thomas Brennan while Brigadier was ridden by Mrs. William Hayward and Carolina by her owner, Mr. Twaddell.

The old fashioned point-to-point, the event which closes the afternoon, and open only to horses hunted regularly with the Fair Acres pack, was won for the third time by young Russell Jones, on his Black Tie, a young gelding which Russ taught to jump this winter. Twelve-year-old Richie on his little mare Feather was 2nd, giving his 15-year-old brother quite a race. The Jones boys seem to have this event sewed up for in the other two years, Rus-

Pebble Beach Trials Chosen As One of Six Prix des Nations Test

Gwenn Graham

An added impetus was given the Pebble Beach, (Calif.) Spring Invitational Hunter Trials this year (April 28-29) because the Pebble Beach Trials were chosen as one of six "Prix des Nations" trials in Zone 10 in which riders must compete to be eligible for consideration as candidates for the U. S. Equestrian Team to be sent to Fort Riley to try for their position on the 1952 Olympic Team.

In addition, the Pebble Beach Hunter Trials, held over four difficult courses with magnificent scenic background, was the scene of an Olympic 3-Day Training Meet to train prospective riders and horses for the future Olympic Games.

The Bird Rock Course along the ocean and the famous Seventeen-Mile-Drive was used Saturday afternoon for 3 classes: Roads and Trails, Cross Country and Hunters. It is a 2-mile course over about 20 fences, posts and rails, ditches, logs, chicken coops and stonewalls—the jumps not exceeding 3'-9". This course counted for 500 points in the Hunter Trial.

The Griffin Course on the estate of Colonel and Mrs. Allen Griffin at Pebble Beach, about 1-4 mile in length, with 10 fences—up banks—in and out—gate—down bank—double Irish bank, etc., counted for 200 points Sunday morning.

Sunday afternoon the Pebble Beach Stable course was used for

MISS BARBARA BUSCH on Mrs. Barbara Worth Dodge's Charley over the 3rd in-and-out in the Second U. S. Equestrian Team (Zone 10) Eliminations held at Pebble Beach, Calif. At this point she had gone clean in a good time, but at the next and last jump—a triple bar—Charley hit to give her a score of 4 faults—time 1:52. (Junian P. Grantham Photo)

sel Jones, Sr. was 2nd to his young son. It was a 4-mile course and took a bit of good riding to negotiate it. Seven horses started and all but one finished.

Colebrook Farms Scene Of Annual Whiteland Hunt Hunter Trials

Elizabeth Von Tress

The 4th annual Whiteland Hunt Hunter Trials were run off on May 6 at Colebrook Farms in Whitford, Pa. Despite a week end full of horse shows, hunter trials and race meetings, there was a good crowd on hand and many good horses.

Sun Echo, a handsome chestnut owned and raised by Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Murtagh of West Chester, was the outstanding horse at the trials. He was ridden by Mr. Murtagh who broke him for a hunter for Mrs. Murtagh. She hunted him all season with West Chester hounds.

Mrs. Charles Lee Harper had a bad fall when her grand mare, Snowflake put in a big one and came a cropper. Unfortunately Mrs. Harper suffered a shoulder injury which will keep her out of the saddle until late summer. Miss Kay Von Tress rode her Sweeper to win the hack class just as Mrs. Harper returned from the hospital after having her shoulder taped.

Mrs. Charles Cann's Flag Maker went brilliantly and well in the ladies' class and had an excellent round in the pair class.

Miss Marion Mills, riding her own little bay hunter, Buster, accounted for 2 blues—this despite a fall Nonnie had in the hunt teams. She went right on to win the pair class, teamed with Howard McCord's Drip, showing that these hunting children have lots of what it takes in courage and stamina.

TEAM WORK

In order to help raise much needed funds for the United States Equestrian Team, the Connecticut Horse Show Association has voted to donate trophies to member shows for the purpose of adding a special class, the entry fees of which are to be turned over to the team fund. The C. H. S. A. is the first such organization to decide to obtain donations in this way. This special class will be for open jumpers over a special course of obstacles starting at the height of 4'-0". The C. H. S. A. has further decided to present an annual award to the Grand Champion Olympic Jumper.—J. F.

ILLINOIS NOTES

Illinois emerged from one of the most severe winters the Mid-west has seen in the last 20 years and interest in horses around La Grange left much to be desired. However, the horses seemed to have thrived during their long holiday and enjoyed the rest. Miss Suzie Lucenti's Confidence had a wonderful season last year and every indication is that he will be capable of another fine year. Mrs. Sall Hawkins Gentry didn't let the weather interfere too much with keeping an eye on her two good hunters, Copperfield and Capt. Fritz Bay and both are ready for the season's campaigning. Miss Marion Mitchell's fine jumper Bugola, Miss Ann Evans' General Jerry and such other fine conformation horses as A-Charo, Chilli Bell and Arcadia Le Sou have already come out for early competition.

LEARNING TO JUMP

Learning to jump a horse, or more rightly, how to stay on while the horse jumps, is like having a baby or going up in an airplane, no one can prepare you by describing it. It's a sensation unto itself.

No matter what the previous instruction, the approach to the first jump is usually made sitting down as deep in the saddle as possible, hanging on for dear life with the knees and keeping a firm grip on the reins and the churning stomach. You are not too surprised and not a little pleased, when the horse decides on terra firma and comes to a halt in the wings. You straighten yourself, rising with dignity from off his neck, and turning, kick him twice and again head toward the jump. Someone cracks a whip as you come into the wings and this time you are not too surprised to find yourself over the jump and on the ground.

This is far from the end of your struggles, unfortunately. You are urged to remount, and brushing the turf out of your ears, you do so. Now, by rising in your stirrups, as the horse leaps you manage to stay with him and ride triumphantly over the jump. A third and fourth trial are successful and this begins to seem like old stuff.

Bring out the hounds! Bring on the steeplechase! Bechers Brook, here I come!

The fifth time into the jump the horse takes off where no self respecting equine should, and you find yourself far back in the saddle, and next, far back of the saddle, with all your weight on the pedals. "Going to England" like an English Jock. A flashing thought in midair, a brief moment of being one with a brotherhood of gallant gentlemen, and then the landing! The saddle slaps you roundly, and you find yourself making like an A bomb, powing head first into the earth.

Pride goeth before a—don't even SAY the word!—M. C.

P. H. A. DONATION

Zone 4, which includes Virginia, W. Virginia, North and South Carolina and the District of Columbia, is making plans to obtain its share of the funds which are necessary to support the U. S. Equestrian Team. At a committee meeting in Warrenton last month, Jack Prestage handed Vice-President W. Haggin Perry a check for $100 from the Virginia Chapter of the Professional Horsemen's Assn. This was the first such donation received from an organization.

BUTTERNUT, THE UNWANTED MULE

Backgrounds of horses oftime include such an array of former owners that one gets confused when making the trip from the name of the breeder to the present owner. However, going from horses to mules, Butternut must hold some claim to fame.

It might be just as well not to delve back too far into past events but Butternut did appear at Morton W. "Cappy" Smith's for awhile where Joseph O'Connell saw the beast. Upon arriving at his home in Massachusetts, Mr. O'Connell definitely decided that he would like to have the mule. Shirley Payne was elected as the one to get the mule from Virginia to the northern region but when he arrived in the Old Dominion, Butternut was in Maryland at Linky Smith's stable. The van made the trip and Butternut went through the preliminary stages of loading like an old hand at the game. However, upon being asked to back into the stall—front feet—hind feet—too much mule and it took 4 men about an hour to get Butternut loaded.

The rest of the trip was made without more ado. Arriving at Hyannisport, Butternut was allowed to rest up and then it was decided to hitch the mule to a borrowed cart—value of cart and harness, about $300. A colored man led the mule while Trainer Payne sat in the driver's seat and they made numerous trips around the inside of a large garage and then the die was cast. Butternut went quietly so the doors were opened. The trio went down the lane and then the weather made a quick change, snow flakes appearing from nowhere so the mule and cart were turned toward home. A second Hiroshima! The groom gathered himself up, minus his shoes. Trainer Payne had shot straight out of the cart and over the mule's head and the mule and cart were nowhere to be seen. The remains of the cart and harness wouldn't have been enough to harness and drive a cat.

Butternut tried life at a public riding stable after that; went quietly for a little boy and then went into its favorite past time of getting rid of riders with a little girl. Back to Hyannisport and another try as a hack—the rider landed in a heap in the paddock. Butternut's destiny was to be in other hands. Back to Virginia and an auction sale of horses at Upperville—"Sold to W. P. Hulbert". But—Butternut had no intention of being a child's mount so over to Mrs. D. N. Lee's stable to be turned out with horses in the paddock. No luck again. Once more Butternut took a trip. This time it was to Mrs. John B. Lee's near The Plains for a quiet life as a companion to hunters.

The wheel has spun again and Butternut is rumored to be on the way to a new home.

RACING STABLE DISCONTINUED

The racing stable of the late William L. Brann will be discontinued, according to the widow of the Maryland owner and breeder. Mrs. Brann, however, will continue breeding activities at the Glade Valley Farm, near Frederick, Md., and plans to send 8 yearlings to the Saratoga Sales this year, according to Tyson Gilpin of the Fasig-Tipton Co. Among the juveniles is a half-brother to Gallorette, world's leading money winning mare. The youngster is by Pictor from Gallette.

Mr. Gilpin also reports that this year's Saratoga vendue will include a half-brother to Count Turf, the Kentucky Derby winner. The yearling is by Eternal Bull—Delmarie.—Jaeger

Plans were laid for the annual show in September, just a week after the Saratoga meeting. Many of the breeders will attend the Saratoga meeting and especially the sales of colts and breeding stock. However, the local demand is so great that according to early reports, the Valley yearlings this year will all be sold direct from the farms.—A. H.

VIRGINIA IN IRELAND

There was distinctly a large congregation after the first day of the Punchestown Meeting at the house of the Baron and Baroness de Robeck about two miles from the course. It was even difficult to locate friends. A voice came clearly from out of the chatter, "What are you doing here?" Mayo Atkinson McIntosh, formerly of Middleburg, Virginia, and her husband, Rieinan, were over from Baltimore to see Punchestown and a bit of Ireland and then on to Scotland.—J. W. B.

OLD PIMLICO

To Pimlico, May the 5. Note that the race cards have gone up to fifteen cents. However they are much more elegant than of old with a colored picture of the old Club House. Went to see the plans of the new grandstand to be built after "the war" and saw with pleasure that the old Club House was still in its accustomed place beyond a most beautiful new grandstand surrounded by trees.

The 6 furlong races seemed to have all become 5 1-2 furlongs. This shortening of the distance, I was told, was to enable the runners to break on the straightaway as the sixth furlong pole is on the bend of the track. Another sixteenth of a mile shorter puts the gate on the backstretch. It might make it easier for a cheap horse to win his race, it would seem perhaps.

There is another George Walker riding, but he rides on the flat and is a Syrian.

Frank Voss is painting a picture of Capot. He and his brother came to see the Jervis Spencer Steeplechase. All of Middleburg, Virginia apparently came too. Bettina and Buddy Ward, Natalie and Howard Kay, Margie and Chris Greer, Jamie and Peggy McCormick, Mildred Skinner, whose husband Jack was saddling Genanoke in the chase.

There was a "Pimlico Ladies Race" also, no betting allowed as perhaps it is not genteel to bet on ladies. They were a workmanlike lot, Judy Johnson, who train "chasers" for T. T. Mott; Joyce Goldschmidt, a Baltimore product; Wantha Davis, who rides races in Aga Caliente, the "Powder Puff Derbies" and who states that she has won 1,000 races; Mrs. Charles Lewis, wife of one of Eddie Blind's assistant starters; Phyllis Lose, who trains her own horses and Betty Bosley, a well-known Maryland horsewoman.

The last named had the most beautiful lead pony on the track, Count Stefan. He looked like a Munnings hunter and he was enjoying himself thoroughly, observing all activity with great interest. He was 2nd in the Maryland Hunt Cup and won at the Devon Horse Show among other things.

There were so many people in the paddock before that race that it was difficult to see the horses and as they came out the police had to call loudly, "Open up, give room." The Western import won the race which was to be expected. Her mount, B. F. Christmas' The Procurator is a very good class horse.

Down to the gate to see Eddie Blind start the third race and noted that his assistants are most well mannered and most quiet. It was a very smooth start. "Big John, handle number 7", was about all Eddie said. No swearing or threatening as in the old days. Not a jockey called, "No chance" this time. Such perfection is good to see.

In the stands during the last race, heard one of the staff speaking to a man climbing upon the side rails on the steps, "Don't get up there, horse."

RAILSIDE

The modern age rears its head all along many routes but it entered a new phase at the Radnor Hunt Race Meeting on May 12. A tally-ho was brought alongside the snow fence so that it could be used as a vantage point from which to watch the races. No horses were with it but its appearance and age bespoke of years gone by. The top was covered with watchers who were intent on watching a field go postward. Then—slowly the door opened, a small boy's head appeared and then he jumped to the ground, brandishing a burp gun. The secretary of the National Steeplechase & Hunt Association, John E. Cooper, always has a busy time at the hunt meetings, what with getting all the details lined up before every race. He and Al Acker had everything in apple pie order at Radnor when Trainer Alex Stokes approached the secretary and handed him his entries for the Rose Tree Hunt Meeting. Proverbially a telephone caller on Monday to say that he has just put his entries in the mail, Trainer Stokes' unprecedented action was almost too much of a surprise to the secretary. A hasty call went out for a photographer to make a picture of this historic event. Sporting one of Palm Beach's best sun tans, Miss Isabelle Haskell arrived in a working mood at Radnor. She was already soliciting ads for the Monmouth Park Charity Ball program. It was definitely cold after the races were over but the hospitality of the George Strawbridges did much to alleviate any undue conditions caused by the unseasonable weather. With a hunt ball to add the finishing touch, another Radnor spring meeting was concluded.

BABADORA

Mrs. Fay Ingalls' home-bred and owned 6-year-old grey mare, Babadora, recently dropped a foal by Jeep. By Sunador—Beaubabs' by Gino, Babadora was a hunt meeting regular until she was cut down during a hurdle event at Rolling Rock in 1949. Now in Kentucky, she will visit the court of First Fiddle.

MAN O'WAR'S BELMONT STAKES

Belmont Park's 1951 spring booklet is so well done it should prove a valuable asset to the country's turf writers. The records of the various events, the pictures and commentaries are top drawer. We especially liked the description of the 1920 Belmont Stakes, which we quote: "Man O'War's Belmont Stakes, 1920. Unforgettable. Only Donnacona accepted issue with Riddle's champion. Distance then 1 3-8 miles. Big Red won as he pleased, by 20 lengths. Hard held, fighting for his head, almost running sideways as Clarence Kummer restrained him, the crowd yelling, 'Let him run. Let him run!' Had Kummer let him run, a record to last for all time might have been set. For Man O'War, restrained though he was, set the track record and the world's record for the distance at 2:14 1-5. Today, 31 years later, the record still stands!"

Here is part of the answer to why old horsemen and racing enthusiasts, who saw "Big Red" perform during his career, utter his name with reverence.

*NEVER AGAIN II AGAIN

Cigar Maid, by Pavot, owned by J. W. Seiffer, won the Fashion Stakes at Belmont, Tuesday, May 15, by 3 lengths, waltzing the 4 1-2 furlongs in .52. Cigar Maid was bred by Kentmere Farm and was sold at Saratoga last year for $12,000. Her dam is the wonderful producer, *Never Again II, by Pharos, which already has the stakes winning Oil Capitol, by *Mahmoud; Monkey Wrench, by Eight Thirty, stakes winner over brush; and Pocket Edition, by Roman, dam of Gold Capitol, stakes winner in California, to her credit.

IMPORTS AT SARATOGA

A consignment of 6 yearlings, which will be sold at the August Saratoga Sales are due May 24th at Idlewild Airport, by K. L. M. plane from Ireland. These are the property of the famous Confeys and Wood Park Studs of Dunboyne and Leixlip, Ireland.

The yearlings upon arrival will go directly to the Tom Waller's Tanrackin Farm, Bedford Hills, New York, where they will remain until the sales. Jack Hare, who has probably traveled with more famous horses than any one living, will make the trip with the yearlings.

Included in the group is a brown colt by Bois Roussel—Ovada, by Solario; a bay filly by Niccola dell'Arca—Sylvan Songstress, by Bois Roussel; and bay colt by Bright News—out of the famous Dastur mare, Suntop.

EIGHT STARTERS

All eight starters in the first steeplechase stake of the year.... Pimlico Jervis Spencer Steeplechase 'cap, run on May 11th, are named for stakes through the field at Delaware Park. The eight jumpers referred to, in the order in which they finished, are Lone Fisherman, Whatta Knight, Extra Points, Port Raider, Genanoke, *Kipper, Adaptable, and Good Marks.

Elkridge now at Belmont Park, pointing for the Meadow Brook 'chase of June 14th, will be vanned to Delaware Park, following the Belmont meeting. At Delaware, the famous gelding will again perform in the Georgetown and Indian River 'chase 'caps. He has won the Indian River 5 times for a world record. no other horse ever captured one stake that many times.

REUNION AT THE BROOK

While riding in the Maiden Plate at Punchestown, Martin Molony took a spill into the brook at the far side of the fence known as the "Hedge and Brook". Recovering undamaged, but damp, he peered over the hedge, just as brother Tim's horse took off. Martin was knocked back again forcefully into the brook this time accompanied by Tim. Both reached shore safely.—"Waddies" and J. W. B.

TRAVELLING TRAINER

The well-known South American trainer, Horatio Luro has departed the Blue Grass after capturing the Kentucky Oaks with that daughter of *Princequillo, How. He will be at Belmont until July, at which time he expects to return here for the Keeneland summer sales, before going to France.

COUNT FLEET PROGENY

Now that a son of Count Fleet has won the Derby, there will probably be much interest shown in the progeny of that great sire. It may interest buyers to know that a Count Fleet colt by Black Wave (Jet Pilot's dam) is to be offered in the 1951 Keeneland Sales by A. B. Hancock's Claiborne Stud. Though most of the talk has been centered around the sons of Count Fleet it is worthy of note that a daughter of his, Astro, ran 2nd to How in the Kentucky Oaks, and went postward as the only maiden in the field, making this her fourth start.—R. S.

EASY LASS

Calumet Farm has had some cause for celebration week-before-last: Three of the offspring of Easy Lass (*Blenheim II—Slow and Easy, by Collin) won added-money events. Fanfare (by Pensive) headed the Kentucky Derby trials; Wistful (by Sun Again) won the Clark Handicap; and Coaltown (by Bull Lea) was victorious in the $25,000 Children's Hospital Handicap in California.

ON THE MOVE

With the closing of Churchill Downs, there's a general exodus to other tracks. Duval A. Headley's string was shipped to Chicago, with the exception of Crownlet (winner of the Debutante Stakes) which had to fulfill an engagement in New York. To Chicago's Lincoln Fields meeting was also sent the 16-horse public stable of trainer Tommy Root. In this latter group are horses belonging to H. D. Cornell, W. J. Walden, and W. M. Wickham.—R. S.

FARM SOLD

The 187-acre Page-Oaks Farm was recently sold by Jack Kain to Dr. Harry G. Jones and thus became the home of the 1946 Kentucky Oaks winner, First Page, which has just foaled a colt by Whirlaway. Dr. Jones says that he is going to send her to War Relic.

*Rallywood immediately went out to establish pace, was headed momentarily by Mighty Casey on far turn but came back to win driving. Mighty Casey made bid after mile, went to front but lost ground when he and *Rallywood bumped entering stretch. Wygant came on in final stages. Cross Creek was well up for a mile. Call Me George was never a factor. Harrigan was up early. Westy Low never threatened. Court Favorite was an early leader but lost ground on turns. Scratched: *Irish Double.

PARTNERSHIP

Leslie Combs II has acquired a partnership in the adjoining Elmcrest Farm of J. Bohannon. The latter now has a small, but well-bred stable, and it is reported that Mr. Combs and Mr. Bohannon intend to breed and race on a small scale.

WRONG OWNER

In listing the winners at the recent Rose Tree Hunt Trials and Colt Show, the owner of Saucy Rebel was incorrectly carried as Richard Atkinson. The 4-year-old Thoroughbred mare was bred and is owned by Mrs. Margaret M. Mosteller, whose breeding farm is at Middletown, Va. Saucy Rebel is by Coq d'Esprit—Little Witch.

Breeding Notes

Noble Impulse Vies With Black Colt For Star Billing At O'Sullivan Farms

Karl Koontz

The Daily Racing Form charts reveal an interesting picture as we look back over the racing career of Noble Impulse (*Bull Dog—*Uvira II, by Umidwar). In his first winning race as a 2-year-old at Havre de Grace, he "...attained a commanding lead...and merely galloped along in front". "Won easily". Six lengths was his winning margin in this 4 1-2 furlong dash for maiden colts or geldings. Then along came the Christiana Stakes and he "...drew out swiftly in final sixteenth". "Won easily". Margin of victory, 3 1-2 lengths.

In the Eastern Shore Stakes, at 5 1-2 furlongs, he "...won with speed in reserve", setting a new track record of 1:04 3-5, with 122 pounds up, the high weight of the field. The 3-4 mile Albany 'cap was won by 3 lengths as he "...held his opposition safe without difficulty". "Won easily".

Three lengths was his winning margin again in the 3-4 mile James H. Connors Memorial, as he "...held sway—to win well in hand". "Won handily". He "...was under restraint while setting the pace and was never threatened" in the 1 1-8 mile Survivor Stakes, running the distance in 1:42 for another track record.

In the Preakness of 1949, "... Noble Impulse was well rated while setting a swift pace and held on gamely but was not good enough". Capot won by a head from Palestinian which was 3 lengths in front of Noble Impulse at the wire. In their wake came Sun Bahram, Ponder, Curandero, Model Cadet, Old Rockport, and Taran.

Noble Impulse was a stakes winner at 2, 3 and 4, over distances from 5 furlongs to 1 1-16 miles. He was Oglebay bred, raised and raced, until sold to Justin Funkhouser at the Pimlico Oglebay Estate sale for $18,000 in 1949. The above are just a few of his stakes winnings and stakes placings but serve to give an excellent overall picture of *Bull Dog's flying son's racing activities.

His dam *Uvira II, besides being a grand race mare, has also been a wonderful producer. She is the dam of Obedient, by *Mahmoud, a winner at 2 and 3; Colonel O'F, by Teddy's Comet, stakes winner of over $100,000; and General Staff, by *Mahmoud, which has placed in stakes at 2 and 3; besides Noble Impulse.

Noble Impulse has been very popular with breeders, as he received 54 applicants. His book was first limited to 22 mares, but as many were bred early in the season and settled, it was increased to 27 for his first season at stud. Each individual mare selected is either a stakes winner, a stakes producer, or a half or full sister to a stakes winner.

It's about an even toss-up as to whether Justin Funkhouser is prouder of his bay 5-year-old stallion or of his corking good looking black *Blenheim II colt, out of Price Level, by *Sickle.

The black youngster is a brother in blood to Chivalrous, by *Blenheim II—On The Level, by *Sickle (she a full sister to Price Level). Chivalrous, was the top priced yearling of 1949, bringing forth 40,500 of Harry LaMontagne's dollars (he of Conniver fame), at the Oglebay Estate Sale at Pimlico, on November 11.

Price Level, by *Sickle—Anchors Ahead, by Man o'War, was a stakes performer at 2 and 3. She won the 5-8 mile Rancocas, the 3-4 mile Spinaway, the 3-4 mile Jeanne d'Arc, the 3-4 mile Autumn Day Stakes and placed in the Colonial Handicap and showed in the Matron Stakes.

Among others of her sex that she bested was the mighty Busher, which was the Best 2-Year-Old Filly in 1944, the Horse of the Year, Best 3-Year-Old and Best Handicap Filly or Mare in 1945, and now the dam of a foal by Jet pilot.

Price Level is a half-sister to the stakes winning Air Hero, whose first crop, consisting of 3 registered foals, reach the races this year. The stakes placing True Blue and stakes winning Ocean Blue, both by Blue Larkspur, are her half-brothers.

Her second dam, Friar's Carse, is the dam of the successful race horse and sire War Relic; Speed Boat, stakes winner and dam of the stakes winning, Level Best; the Demoiselle Stakes winner War Kilt, and the stakes placing Black Carse. Price Level was purchased by Mr. Funkhouser at the Keeneland Fall Sales, on November 17, 1949 for $45,000. Price Level has been bred back to Noble Impulse, this season.

Besides the black *Blenheim II colt there have been five other foal arrivals. There is a black colt by Apache—Easter Pal, by Bostonian. Easter Pal is a half-sister to Dou Doula by Wise Counsellor, the dam of the Christiana, Eastern Shore, and William Penn Stakes winner Quiz Show. Therefore this foal is a 3-4 brother in blood to Quiz Show.

Easter Pal is a half-sister to the Newport Stakes winner Paper Mill, by Heather Broom and Mr. Zip, by the same sire, and a full sister to Boston Pal, which placed in stakes.

Hope Eternal, by Eternal had a colt foal by Pavot, but unfortunately it died. She was a stakes winner of 28 races and is the granddam of Theory, and dam of Eternal Chance, by Chance Play, Eternalalea, by Bull Lea, and Everness by Whirlaway, all winners. She is also the half-sister to the stakes winning Emclument, by Halcyon and Fidelis, by Sweep On.

Alsab is represented by a nice bay filly out of Celtic Legend, by Sir Andrew. Celtic Legend was a winner in 5 seasons, and is the dam of the very fast Narrator. She has a yearling filly by Rosemont also at the farm. Shoofly, by Sun Flag has a chestnut colt by Sir Damion, she the dam of Some Bid, a winner at 2, 4, 5, 6 and 7 and the winners George Quint, Lillian W., Some Gala, Rosadel and Deliver and thus far is a 100 percent producer.

A bay colt by *Rustom Sirdar—Pilgrim Maid, by *Quatre Bras II completes the picture. This mare was a winner of 16 races and is a half-sister to the stakes placing Binky B., by Discovery and to the winners If-If and Modest Lad, by Ladkin and More Flame by Airflame.

With the accent placed on good racing performance and top bloodlines, O'Sullivan Farms is building up an excellent stud from which to send forth race horses that will do them proud.
